Cuban President Raul Castro Congratulates Digna Guerra on 70th Birthday

20/08/2015

During a small ceremony at the headquarters of the National Choir of Cuba, the First Deputy Minister of Culture, Maria Elena Delgado, delivered the distinction sent by the Cuban head of state, which was followed by other gifts from friends, fans and national institutions.

Attendees also highlighted Guerra's accomplishments as founding member and professor of the Higher Institute of Arts (ISA). Digna Guerra said; "I'm happy with my 70th years, which I have dedicated to my country, culture, and the Cuban Revolution. And I'll keep on working until my last breath."
Edited by Ivan Martínez