
Opposition threatens embassies of Venezuela and Cuba in Bolivia

11/11/2019

The siege around the embassies of Venezuela and Cuba in La Paz by extreme opponents to the government of President Evo Morales was denounced on Sunday by those diplomatic missions.

Venezuelan Ambassador to Bolivia Crisbeylee Gonzalez warned about attacks on her embassy by opposition sectors.

'We are fine, but they occupied the embassy, they want to make a massacre with us. Please, I need this to be denounced,' the diplomat said.

Meanwhile, sources from the Cuban embassy charged that offensive and provoking signs had been posted on the mission's fence.

Recently, the Human Rights Committee of the House of Deputies of Bolivia 'strongly' condemned the harassment by opposition groups against the embassies of Cuba and Venezuela, as part of a plan against the government.
