Exhibition in Cuba will illustrate Jose Marti's presence in America

30/11/2019

The photographic exhibition 'Presencia de Marti en Nuestra America' (Marti's Presence in our America), which includes images of works created in honor of the Cuban National Hero in different countries of the region, will be held in December in this capital, according to organizers.

The exhibition, coordinated by the diplomatic missions of the Latin American and Caribbean Group accredited before the Cuban government (GRULAC), will take place at the Marti's Studies Center on the 4th at 3:00 p.m. local time.

The exhibition will be held to honor the memory of Jose Julian Marti Perez, the Apostle of Cuban Independence, as well as the 500th anniversary of the founding of the Villa de San Cristobal de La Habana, celebrated on November 16.

Among the images snapshots of statues, monuments, busts or facilities created or named in honor of the Cuban National Hero feature, which are located throughout the main cities of Latin America and the Caribbean.
