Madonna's "Rebel Heart Tour" Begins on Aug. 29 in Miami

03/03/2015

After starting in Miami, the singer has 20 concerts in North America, with stops in Atlanta, San Juan, Montreal, Washington, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago.

In October she will head to Detroit, Atlantic City, Toronto, Saint Paul, Edmonton, Vancouver, Portland, and San Jose, moving into the last week of the North American tour from Oct. 19 with stops in Glendale, Las Vegas and Los Angeles.

Starting from Nov. 4, the legendary diva will debut her tour in Europe in the German city of Cologne, then she heads to Prague, Berlin, Stockholm, Herning, Turin, Barcelona, Antwerp, London, Amsterdam, Paris, Manchester, Birmingham and Glasgow.

This is the schedule thus far, while the remainder of the shows in Australia and Asia will be announced at a later date.

The "Rebel Heart Tour" accompanies the release of Madonna's newest album, "Rebel Heart," scheduled to be released on March 10, although many of the tracks were leaked during different stages of the production process.
