Cuban delegation arrived to Washington for Human Rights dialogue with United States

31/03/2015

The Cuban official delegation arrived to Washington D.C to hold a dialogue on Human Rights with United States, led by Pedro Luis Pedroso Cuesta, Deputy Director General of Multilateral Affairs and International Law at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

This meeting, scheduled for March 31, follows a proposal by Cuba last June 2014, reiterated in January, 2015, and accepted by United States authorities.

These conversations on Human Rights constitute a symbol of the willingness of Cuba to discuss any issue with Cuba on a reciprocal basis despite the profound differences.
