
Weapons and Chemicals Seized to Terrorists in Syria

11/01/2017

Damascus, Jan 11 (Prensa Latina) Syrian army units seized weapons and chemical substances in parts of the provinces of Hama and Aleppo, military sources said in Damascus today.

According to reports, the weapons and equipment to Hama came from Turkey for the Fateh el Cham terrorists, formerly Al Nusra, and consisted of telecommunications equipment and a drone.

In the ambush, the two-armed extremists who carried the shipment were annihilated, including documents and data that allowed them to define their origin.

Meanwhile, in Aleppo, where cleaning operations continue, a warehouse where highly toxic chemicals were stored in an area close to the old town.

The sources said that these toxic materials were supplied to the terrorist groups by the Saudi company Sachlo, based in Riyadh, the capital, and specialized in the manufacture and marketing of such products.
