President of Mozambique visits Cuba

16/06/2017

The President of Mozambique, Filipe Nyusi, makes an official visit to Cuba from Thursday to Sunday, announced today the Presidency of the Republic in a statement.

The visit comes at the invitation of the President's Cuban counterpart, Raul Castro, with whom the Mozambican head of state will meet.

In the agenda of Filipe Nyusi is also a meeting with the Mozambican community living in Havana, a tribute to Cuban national hero José Martí and visits to economic and social enterprises.

The President of Mozambique will travel to Cuba from the United States of America where he is on an official visit.
