Ahed Tamimi: Girl in Shackles

25/03/2018

A piece of news from EFE agency notified this Thursday that the Palestinian heroine, 17 years old, Ahed Tamimi received an 8-month sentence at a penitentiary in the United States.

The young woman went to Court escorted by a guard from Penitentiary Institutions that brought her in handcuffs that kept her restrained.

On top of that she got a fine for 1,168 Euros because she slapped one of the Israelis soldiers that occupy by force the territory of her homeland.

Earlier in her life when she was only 12 years old she responded to the threat of a soldier of Tel Aviv in her town Nabi Saleh, Jordan.

The teenager served preventive prison since last December and the Military Office for Israel has promised her release next July.

Tamimi, attended the Court based in the Israeli prison of Ófer, Jordan occupied territory and, after hearing the final verdict, she affirmed: "there is no justice under the Israeli occupation".

The verdict also extends to her mother Narima, sentenced to other eight months and a fine of 1.400 Euros for appearing in the video next to her daughter.

The pretext of her arrest took place when she participated in a manifestation against the order passed by Donald Trump of imposing the city of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel.

Do you so-called human-rights defenders know this history?

They almost made it to the pages in newspapers, news reels and digital media.

Have they said something on Ahed Tamimi case?

When they do they will begin to inspire an atom of respect.
