
Israel's Gantz self-isolating due to suspected exposure to coronavirus

By: RHC
09/07/2020

Israel's Defense Minister Benny Gantz has said he was self-isolating due to suspected exposure to a person infected with the coronavirus.

Gantz's spokesman said: "Due to suspicion of being exposed to a coronavirus patient last Sunday evening, out of the desire and responsibility to avoid the risk of infection and after consulting with medical officials, Defense Minister and Alternate Prime Minister Benny Gantz decided to go into isolation, pending a corona examination and epidemiologic investigation."
