China records 61 new cases of coronavirus mostly from Xinjiang

By: RHC
27/07/2020

Beijing, July 27 (RHC)-- China on Monday reported 61 new confirmed cases of coronavirus, spread between its northeastern and northwestern regions.

The Xinjiang region in the northwest reported 41 new cases, while Liaoning and Jilin provinces in the northeast saw a combined total of 16. Another four cases were brought by Chinese travelers from outside the country.

No new deaths were reported, leaving the toll from COVID-19 in the country at 4,634 among 83,891 cases.