Cuban President congratulates new President of Mexico

02/07/2018

The Cuban president, Miguel Díaz Canel, sent a congratulation message to the president-elect of Mexico Andrés Manuel López Obrador.

Pedro Nunez Mosquera, Cuban ambassador to Mexico, reported the news in his Twitter account.

Díaz Canel joined other heads of state who congratulated the candidate of the coalition Juntos Haremos Historia. López Obrador celebrated a resounding victory in his tenacity for the presidency.

López Obrador's first words, after the National Electoral Institute confirmed his irreversible superiority in the voting, were headed to the leaders and international organizations that congratulated him.
