
Miami Activists Launch Car Caravan for the Cuban Five

04/09/2014

The Miami-based Alianza Martiana Coalition called on a car caravan on September 6 in that Southern US city to demand the release of the three anti-terrorist Cubans still imprisoned in the United States.

It is our duty to firmly keep with our fair demand reads the call, which refers to the immediate freedom of Gerardo Hernández, Ramón Labañino and Antonio Guerrero , who along René González and Fernando González, already free in Cuba, were given unfair prison sentences in 2001 by a Miami court after the monitored Florida-based terrorist organizations.

The Caravan will also demand the arrest of Cuban American ultra-right terrorists who are freely walking the streets of Miami in complicity with the US administration, reads the call.

September 12 will mark the 16th anniversary of the arrest of the five Cubans in the United States.

The Caravan will gather at 10:30 am Saturday at the Youth Fair parking lot, on Coral Way or 24th street and 112 Avenue in the Southwest and it will kick off its tour at midday on major streets of Miami.
