
A Film on the Five Cuban Heroes to be released in 2019

10/09/2018

Spanish Penélope Cruz and Mexican Gael García Bernal will join Venezuelan Édgar Ramírez and Brazilian Wagner Moura in the film entitled 'Wasp Network' by the French Olivier Assayas.

The film of which its plot was based on the book entitled 'The last soldiers of the Cold War' by Brazilian writer Fernando Morais will be focused on the history of the Cuban Cinco Heroes (Five Heroes) infiltrated in the United States during the 90's and it was already in Cuban soil in 2014.

The cast of the film will include Venezuelan Édgar Ramírez ('La Quietud') and Chilean Pedro Pascal ('Wonder Woman 2') which was previously announced last month when the project was presented in the society at the Cannes Festival.

The one entitled 'RT Features' by Rodrigo Teixeira and the 'CG Cinema' by Charles Gillibert which are behind this project. It is currently in process of distribution of which its filming is planned to the beginning of 2019.

Radio Rebelde News Desk
