18/09/2014

Cuban authorities have announced they will present the first update of the foreign investment opportunity portfolio during the upcoming Havana's International Fair (FIHAV 2014) in November. This update is part of the new legal framework that regulates these activities, said Yohaney Savigne, expert at the Cuban Center for the Promotion of Foreign Trade and Investment (CEPEC), during a meeting in Havana.

Savigne gave a lecture at the 6th Latin American and Caribbean Congress on Food Quality and Safety Standards, being held at Havana's Conventions Center and including 500 experts from 15 countries.

Savigne explained that the 32th edition of the FIHAV will focus on foreign investment and its promotion in Cuba's priority sectors.
