

---

Cuban Vice President Ines Maria Chapman to Arrive in Kenya Today

31/03/2019

The vice president of the Cuban Council of State and of Ministers, Ines Maria Chapman, will arrive on Sunday in Kenya, the last stopover of a tour of three African countries.

The tour, which also included South Africa and Lesotho, contributed to fostering relations between Cuba and the African peoples.

The Cuban vice president was welcomed by the top government and political authorities in the nations she visited.

At each meeting, participants highlighted Cuba's role in the independence of this part of the world, as well as its collaboration in several fields, particularly public health.

The vice president, in turn, expressed her country's gratitude for the strong stance against the economic, commercial and financial blockade the United States has imposed on Cuba for more than six decades.