

---

Cuban FM Reiterates Commitment to Venezuela

08/06/2019

Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez has reiterated on Friday the Cuban collaborators' pledge to continue their social work in Venezuela, after meeting with the Venezuelan President of the National Constituent Assembly, Diosdado Cabello.

I had a fraternal and fruitful meeting with Cabello, the Cuban FM published on Twitter, adding that both top officials dealt with several issues included in the international agenda.

Cabello, who is also First Vice President of the United Socialist Party of Venezuela (PSUV) arrived in Cuba on Thursday to gather some experiences in view to host the 25th Sao Paulo Forum, to be held from July 25 to 28, in Caracas, Venezuela.

According to local media outlets' reports, the Venezuelan political leader told the press the organizational Cuban experience for these Forums is critical.

Leading a PSUV delegation, Cabello will fulfill an agenda which including meetings with the Cuban Party and Government members.