
CHOUCAIR TALKS BILATERAL RELATIONS WITH AMBASSADORS OF CUBA, AUSTRIA

21/06/2019

Minister of Telecommunications Mohammed Choucair, on Friday received Cuba's Ambassador to Lebanon, Alexander Pellicer Moraga, with whom he discussed means of bolstering bilateral relations particularly in the economic domain.

Minister Choucair stressed Lebanon's interest in strengthening economic relations with Cuba, emphasizing the need to increase trade exchange between the two countries, notably with the presence of many opportunities.

For his part, Ambassador Pellicer emphasized willingness to take the necessary measures to strengthen bilateral economic cooperation.

Choucair also met with Austrian Ambassador to Lebanon, Marian Werba, with talks reportedly touching on means to enhance bilateral relations.

Choucair underlined the need to bolster economic and trade cooperation between the two countries, in particular facilitating the entry of Lebanese products into Austrian markets.

Choucair spoke about the progress realized in the advancement of the Lebanese telecommunications sector and the possibility of Lebanon benefiting from the experience of Austrian companies in this field.

Ambassador Werba, in turn, emphasized his country's interest in strengthening economic relations with Lebanon.
