Cuban Acosta Danza ballet company begins tour of Asia

09/10/2019

Acosta Danza, led by Carlos Acosta, began a tour of Asia during October, which includes performances in Singapore and China.

It will be the first time that the Cuban company will be in Singapore.

As part of the Dans Festival 2019, Cuban artists will perform on October 10 and 11 at the Esplanade - Theatres on the Bay, considered the most important stage in this Asian country, announced Lester Vila, press director of the dance group.

After these performances Acosta Danza will travel to China to perform at the National Theater of that country on October 15 and 16.

Since its debut, Acosta Danza has the goal of performing dance shows in full accordance with the most current notions developed in the world, not only in terms of body movement but in everything related to the scene.
