
Masks for José Daniel Ferrer (+ VIDEO)

06/12/2019

The shame from Palmarito del Cauto is dressed by his handlers, prisoner, tortured by a board in service of state security, which rushed against his sacrificed person.

The world will be celebrated tomorrow the day of Freemasonry, the brothers of that fraternity do it with joy and pride, I must clarify that I have no clue whatsoever regarding the inner life of fraternities, but also that I have friends who are freemason and from them I have always received support and solidarity. On top of that, in my darkest days, in Miami and Havana, I have great gratitude because without being one of them, they have treated me as if I were in their treatment.

In Cuba, during these days of celebration, freemasons from the United States fraternize with their Cuban peers, but the devil is in the details; a media sponsored by USAID attached to the U.S. Department of State, publishes an article that reveals that the common offender become dissident and financed, manipulated, and puppet of the radically anti-Cuban and pro-Trump sectors, is a freemason, what a timely revelation around these days when the aforementioned individual has been publicly unmasked for his criminal acts characteristic of the mafia camorra, what's hidden behind it?

You don't have to go through Georgetown University to see it, especially when your experience attain with the years in these sort of matters. They have to wash away the face of José Daniel Ferrer, present him as a pacifist, political prisoner, freedom fighter, man of God, good husband, father, son, friend, patriot, a waste of virtues with which the shame from Palmarito del Cauto is dressed by his handlers, a prisoner, tortured by a board in service of the state security, which rushed against his sacrificed person, following orders from Quiñones, all the shine so the mercenary does not look like a bullying gang member of his subordinates, everything, even a freemason.

I think right now of Martí's and Maceo's freemasonry, in the freemasonry of the brothers who celebrate their day and I can't, but wonder; will the mask machinery surprise us someday with a request for sanctity in life for this impostor? Show some respect for a brotherhood that has been and is full of the generosity and greatness of so many renowned people, because as that catchy song of sucu sucu; The snakes have no cave, Felipe Blanco covered them.
