
Trump Faces Impeachment Inquiry like a Wounded Tiger

09/12/2019

A newswire from the Spanish news agency (EFE) confirmed on Thursday that US President Donald Trump attacked Democrats aiming at a replacement in office for filing charges against him.

He called them "Radical Left Democrats," who try to bring him to trial ... for nothing.

He also asked for a quick vote on the subject to have a fair political trial in the Republican-led Senate.

He added that he is being brought to justice due to the pressure he exerted on the current President of Ukraine, aimed to do some inquiries on his political rival and former Vice President of the United States, Joe Biden.

According to Trump, it was only about "appropriate contacts" and impeachment would certainly set a bad precedent.

But his excuse was not believed.

"This means," he added, "that the act of impeachment will be used routinely in the future to attack presidents.

That is not what our Founders had in mind. The good thing is that the Republicans have NEVER been more united. We will win!" He sentenced.

He then addressed Democrats:

"If you are going to impeach me, do it now, fast, so we can have a fair trial in the Senate, and so that our Country can get back to business."

The latter showed the degree of attention being paid in the US to the impeachment inquiry against the Head of the White House.

So far, no clear resolution looms on the horizon.

Translated by Sergio A. Paneque Diaz/CubaSi Translation Staff
