New Everton manager Carlo Ancelotti has sent a classy message to fans after signing a deal to become the club's new manager.

Ancelotti has joined on contract which runs until the summer of 2024 as the days and weeks of speculation finally come to an end.

Everton supporters are for the most part delighted with the acquisition and Ancelotti's pedigree is the main reason for that.

The Italian won the Premier League with Chelsea and also lifted domestic titles with AC Milan, Bayern Munich and Paris Saint-Germain, while he secured two Champions Leagues at Milan and another with Real Madrid.

His CV is something all Everton fans are impressed by and they will be also happy with the 60-year-old's message to supporters following the announcement on Saturday morning.

"Excited to share the news that I am joining Everton FC. I am delighted to be back in the Premier League and to be part of this historic club. Thank you for your trust in me," Ancelotti tweeted.

On the job ahead, Ancelotti has also said: "This is a great club with a rich history and a very passionate fan base. There is a clear vision from the owner and the board to deliver success and trophies."

"That is something that appeals to me as a manager and I am thrilled at the prospect of being able to work with everybody at the club to help make that vision a reality."
