
Cuban Foreign Ministers blasts Trump's "Deal of the Century" for the Middle East

31/01/2020

Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla rejected the wrongfully named "Deal of the Century," exposed by the U.S. President Donald Trump, which supports the Israeli intervention in Palestinian territory.

"I reject biased and deceitful U.S. peace program that consecrates Israeli occupation and violates the inalienable right of Palestinians to have their state within the pre-1967 borders, with East Jerusalem as it's capital; and the return of refugees," Rodríguez wrote on Twitter.

The minister's statements follow Trump's proposal on Tuesday for the creation of a Palestinian State with its capital in East Jerusalem, thus recognizing the territories occupied by Israel, as part of its Middle East peace plan.

Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas called Trump's plan a conspiracy and said that the rights of his people are not for sale.
