In a red carpet interview Friday with E! News. Damon and Affleck were joking about whether they treat each other differently when one is in better shape than the other, when Affleck said the following.

"Well, (Damon's) going to be doing a Bourne movie next fall when I've just completely lost any semblance of physical fitness. So --" Affleck told E! News.

"Yes, next year," Damon responded to E! News when asked for clarification.

"It'll be in 2016 when the movie will actually come out. (Director) Paul Greengrass is going to do another one and that's all I ever said. I just needed him to say yes."

Ben Affleck may have unintentionally let the news slip that Matt Damon will return to the role of Jason Bourne in 2016 after stepping out of the spotlight for the fourth installment of the popular action series.
