

---

Closure of FIHAV 2014 in the Palace of Conventions

12/11/2014

After 6 days of fruitful exchange between entrepreneurs and officials from more than 60 nations, the 32th International Fair of Havana closed in the Palace of Conventions last Friday.

On that day the jury prizes were awarded in different categories and were announce the convening of the 2015 edition.

Business rounds, signing of agreements and conventions, business meetings, as well as to promote Cuba's exports of goods and services accounted for the event program.

FIHAV 2014 was dedicated to promoting foreign investment in Cuba, in order to encourage the development of important sectors such as agriculture, industry, tourism, biotechnology and renewable energy.

Rated as the highest in the past 12 years, the most important shopping bag Caribbean and one of the most recognized in Latin America, brought together nearly five thousand exhibitors from 62 nations.