

---

Erislandy Savon shows his power at Veracruz

24/11/2014

BOCA DEL RÍO, Veracruz.- Cuban Boxer Erislandy Savón presented at CACG Veracruz 2014 with a knockout victory at Heavy weight during the second day of activities of the discipline that took place at WTC Boca del río.

Erislandy, nephew of legendary champion Félix Savón, with a right hit at the jaw, send to the mat at second round costarican Antony Solano to start with his right foot the road to the triumph and the title of 91 kg. division.

As well as in heavy weight, colombian Alfonso Flores imposed himself by unanimous decision the haitian Andre Demosthene, as well as Julio Devis from Colombia, who passed over dominican Joaquín Berroa.

Trough fast line, Charles Seanasi, from Trinidad and Tobago, defeated nicaraguan Rigbi Hasan Miguel on welterweight, while costarican Eduardo Sanchez sent haitian Walme Widens, to the mat, to get out of the ring with the victory.

At the same division Brayam Rico, from Colombia, defeated Guatemalan Walter Duarte, in the mean time Daniel Zorrilla, from Puerto Rico, who defeated bahamian Rashield Williams.

Boxing activities, will go on sunday with a double function at 15:00 y 19:00 local time.