
Cuban, Bolivian Heads of State Meet in Havana

16/12/2014

Cuba's President Raul Castro met his counterpart from Bolivia, Evo Morales, who attended in Havana at the 13th Summit of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-People's Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP). During the meeting the two leaders exchanged views on bilateral cooperation projects and agreed that relations have reached a high level, said an official statement issued here.

The document added the Dignitaries exchanged on issues of mutual interest of regional and international agenda.

The meeting was attended by Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Bruno Rodriguez (Cuba) and David Choquehuanca (Bolivia).
