Don Quixote celebrates its 400 years at Cuba's National Theater

28/04/2015

The performances will take place on Sala Avellaneda of the Teatro Nacional, on May 2 (8:30 pm), May 3 (5:00 pm) and on May 7, 8 and 9 (8:30 pm).

Two of them will be special: the one on May 7, dedicated to the 6th Cuban Convention on Earth Sciences, and the other one on Saturday 9, dedicated to the 19th International Fair CUBADISCO 2015.

The leading roles will be assumed by Anette Delgado and Dani Hernández (Saturday 2), Sadaise Arencibia and Víctor Estévez (Sunday 3), Amaya Rodríguez and Luis Valle (Thursday 7), Grettel Morejón and Alfredo Ibáñez (Friday 8) and Viengsay Valdés and Víctor Estévez (Saturday 9), who will be supported by soloists and the dance staff of the company.

These performances have as main attractions the debut of Alfredo Ibáñez and Luis Valle, in the role of Basilio, the village barber.
