
EU Calls on Europe to Unite against Migration Crisis

25/08/2015

In an interview with France 24, the UN official said that the European migration plan is the solution and it's time for Europe to act in a united way.

Avramopoulos underlined that money alone is not sufficient to manage the current waves of migration, noting the importance of implementing the EU's policy and strengthening bilateral cooperation.
