Boxers from 10 countries and regions plus the hosting island will participate at the tournaments Giraldo Cordova Cardin and Roberto Balado, scheduled here from June 11 to 21, the National Commission of the discipline announced Thursday.

According to a brief release cited by the sports site "Jit", China sends the largest delegation of 15 fighters to compete with Morocco, Venezuela, Hungary, and Argentina, to the two contests at the Coliseum of the Sports City in Havana.

The list continues with Chile, Sweden, Sri Lanka, Trinidad and Tobago and Dominican Republic, however the commission stressed the inventory is expected to grow still in next days.

Just as it happened in the last editions of both tournaments, Cuba will depend on two casts in the first of those commitments and will diversify its presence in the following one, considered the hall of the finals of the current First National Series undertaken on the island.

The Giraldo Cordova Cardin is scheduled from June 11 to 15, and the Roberto Balado from 17 to 21, while the finals of the National Series will be held in the same Coliseum on 24 to 29, in the same month.
