

---

Lawyer CELAC dela Fourth Summit to reduce inequality in the region

05/01/2016

CELAC, Community of Latin American and Caribbean held next January 27 in Ecuador, the fourth Summit and discuss issues such as the reduction of inequality in the region.

At the meeting to be held in Quito, representatives of the 33 countries of the regional bloc will evaluate the eradication of poverty and seek ways to encourage political cooperation.

Also at the meeting, the host country will present to Dominica block the pro tempore presidency of CELAC, intergovernmental organization whose primary mission is to promote regional integration and promoting sustainable development.

---