
Cordoba's businessmen to seek market opportunities in Cuba

12/01/2016

Cordoba's chamber of Commerce, with the collaboration of the City Council of Cordoba, is assessing the possibility to visit Cuba with a commercial purpose. This visit goal is actually to improve and strengthen trade and entrepreneurial links between the two entities and seek ways to expand Cordoba's companies by taking chances with this new stage in Cuba's daily life.

Cuban ambassador in Spain, Juan Francisco Montalban, offered a news conference yesterday. 50 Cordoba's businessmen attended. Such conference focused on providing information about the real chances of investment as well as Cuba's social-economic and political reality.

Ignacio Fernandez de Mesa, Cordoba chamber of commerce chairman, stated that commercial exchange between Cordoba and Cuba has increased 50% in the last year, reaching the figure of 1.200.000 Euros.

Cubasi Translation Staff
