

Film of Ex President Mujica at Toulouse Festival

17/03/2016

The film is considered a moving and inspiring depiction of an exceptional man. Its director, Heidi Specogna, shot it after years of constant exchange with the former Uruguayan president (2010-2015).

Today the festival also screens the Venezuelan film Desde Alla, which shows the history of sexual and social diversity in Caracas.

Directed by Lorenzo Vigas, the movie deals with issues such as homosexuality, which lead to rejection by society. .

About 30 films are competing in the festival, which concludes on the 20th of March, in the categories of fiction, short films and documentaries.
