Qva Libre musical group to present new discographic production

01/04/2016

All tracks in the album will be presented live at Don Cangrejo restaurant bar, commented the band leader Carlos Díaz to Suenacubano portal.

He said that Rock Duro is full of collaborations and there will be many others, with DJ Unic, Celula Music, among other artists.

Even without having the record, he said, the people already knows some of the songs in Rock Duro, because they have been gradually launched.

So happened with the most recent single entitled Mujeres, a collaboration of Qva Libre with urban artists Yomil and el Dany; following this strategy the song Soy un bomboncito, with singer songwriter Kelvis Ochoa as guest musician will be shortly in the market. The theme was composed by Osmani Espinosa and according to Díaz, to work with Kelvis was fantastic, he is a great artist and everything flowed spontaneously. The single's video clip will be shot soon directed by José Rojas.

Rock Duro's success can be appreciated in the reception of the hits Tú eres la razón and Mujeres, highly consumed both audio and video clip.

Qva Libre was created in 2000 and mixes rock, funk and hip hop with Cuban music rhythms and roots achieving a singular style and a very interesting sound.

They have three albums Resistencia y reciclaje, Viva Qva Libre, winner the Cubadisco Award in 2011 in the fusion category and La Psicodélica Estelar.

Translation: Liana Fleitas (Cubarte)