
Fidel Castro Honors Vilma Espin on Her Birthday Anniversary

08/04/2016

The historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro, paid tribute this April 7, in a school in Havana, to revolutionary fighter, Vilma Espin, on the 86th anniversary of her birth, said a report of the Cuban television.

According to the report, Fidel Castro reminded the late heroine accompanied by students and teachers of daycares, primary schools, and professors from the educational complex, located in the municipality of Playa, which was named after her.
