

Haydeé Milanés to offer a sole concert with her father Pablo Milanés

01/06/2016

This occasion father and daughter will sing themes of the album Amor: Haydeé Milanés a dúo con Pablo Milanés and other essential pieces of Pablo's professional career.

With this concert, the young singer will revere the work of her teacher and source of inspiration, one of the founders of the Cuban Nueva Trova Movement.

Awarded with an Honorary Latin Grammy Award in 2015, Milanés is the author of beautiful songs like El breve espacio en que no estás, Yolanda, Para vivir and De que callada manera.

On her part, Haydeé has conquered the Cuban and international publics for the sensuality and freshness of her voice singing her own compositions or others from local authors, Descemer Bueno among them.

One of her most relevant discographic productions is the phonogram Palabras, in which reborn beautiful songs from Cuban singer-songwriter Marta Valdés, one of the most important in the Island's musical panorama.

Translation: Liana Fleitas (Cubarte)