

---

Singer Descemer Bueno to Tour Cuba

14/06/2016

Cuban singer and composer Descemer Bueno will tour several provinces from June 15 to 30 where he will play known songs from his repertoire and his next album, Cuerpo y Alma.

Bueno will start the long voyage on the 15 by Guantanamo province, and then he will perform at the Amphitheatre Mariana Grajales in Santiago de Cuba (17), in the parking lot of Calixto Garcia Stadium in Holguin (19) and in the Plaza San Juan de Dios in Camagüey (22).

On the 25th he will be present at the Amphitheater of Varadero in Matanzas and will conclude the tour on June 30th in the parking lot of Latinoamericano Stadium in Havana, the musician told reporters.

At concerts, Bueno said, I'll play my own compositions that have been hits in the voice of other singers, and now I would like to defend as an artist.

He added he will sing songs from the CD Bueno and will release part of the repertoire of his next phonogram, a double album titled Cuerpo y Alma.

Referring to the new phonogram, the author of the popular track Bailando, noted it will feature twenty songs that includes titles like 360 grados and Mátame.

These CDs have many guest artists, he stated, including Spanish singers Rosario Flores and Beatriz Luengo, Estopa group and Colombian singer Jorge Villamizar.

Descemer Bueno is one of the most Cuban popular musicians of the moment, with a very particular style, and has been internationally recognized for his compositions.

He has collaborated with renowned figures of Cuban and foreign music scene such as Leoni Torres, Buena Fe duo, Kelvis Ochoa, X Alfonso and Enrique Iglesias.

---