
Circuba 2016 Festival Begins in Havana Today

11/07/2016

Havana, Jul 11 (Prensa Latina) With the participation of Latin American, Caribbean, European and Asian artists, the 15th International Festival, Circuba 2016, begins here today with a presentation of the Havana Company. The event hosts until July 17 the debut in Cuba of Enominne Danza Aerea group (Ecuador), and jugglers of Shih Hao Yang (Taiwan).

The event takes place at the Havana's Trompoloco big top, and among its main attractions is the performance of famous circus artists, including American Raph David Adamovich. He is the world's fastest and most accurate knife thrower. Dedicated to the 90th birthday of the historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro, the event will also include the show by Argentina skater, Maria Celeste, and other prominent international artists.

A luxury jury composed of 12 professionals, among them the directors of Blackpool Tower Circus (United Kingdom), Laci Enderz; the International Circus Festival of Albacete (Spain), Antonio Alvarez; and the Universoul Circus (United States), Cedric Walker, will grant the awards of the contest.
