
Rolling Stones Cuba Concert To Screen In Movie Theatres

02/08/2016

The Rolling Stones have confirmed that their recent "Havana Moon" concert in Cuba will soon be screened in movie theaters across the U.S. The concert took place last March and a new concert documentary is set to hit theaters on September 23.

"The Havana Moon cinema experience immerses the audience in fantastic surround sound with super high definition visuals, it is the closest you will get to being there, don't miss it!" said production company MusicScreen CEO David Pope.

Mick Jagger said, "The Cuba show was simply amazing. It was an incredible moment; a huge sea of people for as far as the eye could see. You could feel the buzz of the enthusiasm from the crowd and that was for me the stand out moment."

Keith Richards said, "There's the sun the moon the stars and The Rolling Stones. Seeing Cuba finally get the chance to rock out was special . . A night to remember in Havana . ."
