
Evo Morales Met Fidel Castro in Havana

16/08/2016

Bolivian President Evo Morales celebrated with Cuban Revolution leader Fidel Castro the second gold medal achieved by Cuba in the Rio Games 2016.

“At age 90 and two days, Fidel sharp as always. His concern and reflection: allowances for life in the planet”, posted the Bolivian president Evo Morales in his Twitter account, after meeting in Havana with Fidel Castro.

Evo Morales published four pictures of his meeting with Fidel whom last August 13 turned 90 years old.

He said they celebrated the gold medal of the Cuban Mijaín López in the Greco-Roman wrestling in the Olympic Games of Rio de Janeiro.

The Bolivian leader made a stopover this Monday in Cuba on his way to Dominican Republic with the purpose of attending the taking possession of the elected president Danilo Medina.
