

---

Rosetta: Mission control confirms probe has 'crash landed'

30/09/2016

Europe's Rosetta probe has ended its mission to Comet 67P by crash-landing on to the icy object's surface.

Mission control in Darmstadt, Germany, was able to confirm the impact had occurred when radio contact to the ageing spacecraft was lost abruptly.

Read more Rosetta mission ends in comet collision