
Cuban Symphony Orchestra and Belgian Pianist to Perform Mozart

12/10/2016

Havana, Oct 12 (Prensa Latina) The National Symphony Orchestra of Cuba and the Belgian pianist, Roberte Mamou, will offer a concert on October 16, during which will perform famous musical pieces by Austrian composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, the National Symphony Orchestra announced today.

The influence of the genius of Salzburg, author of more than 600 pieces, is perceptible in the five continents, and Cuban musicians pay tribute to him each year by performing a festival that takes place in this capital.

The Festival Mozart-Habana 2016 will take place from October 15 to 23 in several concert halls and will participate musicians from France, Belgium, Austria, the Netherlands and United States, among others.

The concert will take place at the Covarrubias Hall of the National Theater. Selections of Mozart's opera The Magic Flute will be performed that day with the collaboration of soloists and the chorus of the Lyric Theater of Cuba.

In addition, the orchestra under the conduction of maestro Enrique Pérez Mesa, will play Mozart's brilliant Piano Concerto No.12 in A major, K.414, accompanied by the Belgian pianist Roberte Mamou, who was invited to the event organized by the Mozart Lyceum of Havana.
