
Cuban President Raul Castro Arrived in Brazil

16/07/2014

Army General Raúl Castro Ruz, President of the Councils of State and Ministers, arrived in the afternoon of Wednesday, July 16 at Brasilia, Brazil, heading a presidential delegation to attend the meeting of Latin American and Caribbean leaders and China, to be held on the 17th of that month in that city.

Besides the members of CELAC (Costa Rica, Cuba, Ecuador and Antigua and Barbuda), are expected the presence of the presidents of the member countries of UNASUR and Mexico.

Members of the Cuban delegation, Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade, Investment Rodrigo Malmierca.

Minrex Vice Minister Abelardo Moreno Fernández , and the Ambassador of Cuba in Brazil, Marielena Ruiz Capote.

Translated by: Aliuska Cadalso
