
European Critics Recognize Quality of Cuban Dance Company

05/12/2016

Danza Contemporanea de Cuba is performing today in Germany to unanimous rave reviews by critics, who have described their performance as vibrant and energetic.

Danza Contemporanea de Cuba, which has been directed by Miguel Iglesias for 31 years, began a tour of 15 cities in Germany and Switzerland on November 14th.

The company that gave birth to modern dance in Cuba, has preformed to packed theaters in Bonn, Ludwigshafen, Karlsruhe, Ludwigsburg and Furth.

The tour, which lasts until December 22nd, will also include two special performances in Monte Carlo, Monaco. At the invitation of Her Royal Highness Carolina de Monaco, Princess of Hanover and the director of the Montecarlo Ballet, Jean Christophe Maillot, the company will star in two performances at the Grimaldi Forum in Monaco.
